“Doggy” sings “Someone stole it from my home”

“Thief” sings “I stole your bone” and “Doggy” guesses who the thief is.

OR

Play with 2 people

Have the person who is the “DOGGY” covers their eyes,

The other person hides the “BONE” somewhere in the room

Both sing “Doggy, doggy, where’s your bone?”

“Doggy” sings “Someone stole it from my home”

“Thief” sings “Where did I hide your bone?” and the DOGGY” then gets 3 guesses as to where it.

(Sometimes it’s nice to give hints after each guess,

Such as, “It’s in this half of the room” or “It’s higher than your head”
